Important News from the East.

NEW-YORK, Nov. 15.—The Richmond Enquirer is alarmed with the news that 40,000 federal troops had invaded the eastern shore of the State and that there were only 1800 Confederates to meet them.

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—We have news from Halifax that the rebel steamer Nashville and a British steamer were in port, and that the British vessel had transferred her arms to the Nashville, and that the latter had put Slidell and Mason on the British vessel, which would take them to England, while the Nashville would run the blockade with the arms.

FORT MONROE, Nov. 15.—The steam frigate San Jacinto has just arrived from the coast of Africa, via the West Indies, where she had been cruising. The port was electrified by the tidings that the San Jacinto had on board Mr. Slidell and Mason, who were going as ministers of the Southern confederacy. Com. Wilkes said he would report at head quarters in person and will forward his dispatches to-night. All the documents and papers of Mason and Slidell were seized.—Their families were allowed to proceed. The Captain of the British vessel delivered up Mason and Slidell under protest.

The Belvillere, having been repaired, will leave Fort Monroe for Port Royal to-morrow, November 15th, with mails and dispatches.

A special dispatch to the New York Tribune, dated Fort Monroe, November 15th, says Mason and Slidell were aboard the British Mail vessel. Wilkes sent aboard and demanded their surrender. The reply was there was not force enough to take them.—Wilkes sent an additional force and put the San Jacinto into a convenient position. Slidell and Mason were then surrendered. The English steamer took them on board not knowing who they were. Their friends were allowed to proceed to their destination. Captain Wilkes, it is understood, acted on his own responsibility. Gen. Wool granted Slidell and Mason permission to send open letters to their friends this evening.

SAVANNAH, November 14th.—The Federals are reported to have passed Fort Dina yesterday, bound South.

General activity prevails in the defenses of the city, and a general feeling of security prevails.

The same paper says the steamer Fingal has arrived at Savannah, with a cargo of war munitions, etc.

A Richmond dispatch says: We have information that the authorities of South Carolina have communicated with the rebel government upon the subject of hoisting the black flag, to which allusions have been made since the attack on the coast of their State. It is believed General Lee has received a communication from the War Department, urging that their captives must be regarded as prisoners of war. It is said that this will be disagreed to by the authorities of South Carolina; that the same course will be pursued as that adopted by Governor Wise at the time of the John Brown Raid, and that when South Carolina is done with the invaders, the Confederate Government can have them.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 16th.—Gov. Hicks has issued a proclamation calling a special session of the Maryland Legislature, at Annapolis, on the 24th of November, to establish Maryland in her old position as the heart of the Union, and render the traitorous Legislature of the Fort Warren members of no account.

LYNCHBURG (Va.), Nov. 15th.—It is reported, but not confirmed, that the Union men of Tennessee have taken possession of Bristol.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The regulars from California left Washington this morning.

The British steamer Avon, which arrived at Aspinwall just before the Champion reports that the privateer Sumter was at Barbadoes October 22d.

It is reported from Savannah that, in consequence of the victory of the Federal fleet at Port Royal, everybody was greatly alarmed. Small parties who were packing up their goods to cars, had been notified by the authorities that they would not be permitted to carry off their goods. The Republican is indignant at the cowardly desertion in time of danger, and urges Gen. Lawton to issue an order preventing any able-bodied men under sixty years of age from leaving.

There are 1,500 men now at Annapolis ready to embark. The current rumor is that they are to reinforce General Sherman.

The fleet is understood to have gone to Pensacola. The news of an other exploit may be expected soon.

General Sherman is reported to have seized Pinckney Island and all the able-bodied negroes. No attempt has been made to land on the main land.

The Norfolk Day Book says that the Planters' Convention has recommended a duty of 20 per cent. on goods imported from the United States; and that the present crop should not be sold, and that the planters next spring should not plant beyond their own wants.

The New York Herald says that a difficulty has grown out of the report of the fight at Bull's Bluff and that Col. Herrick, of 11th Mass. Regt. had challenged a major of the New York Tammany regiment.

By Continental Telegraph!

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN, SENTINEL AND STATESMAN.

YREKA, Nov. 23d, 1861.

The northern line is now working to San Francisco. The following is from the Sacramento Union of Nov. 22.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21st.—Immediately after the receipt of the news of the capture of Slidell and Mason, Messrs. Gwin, Benham and Brent were re-arrested and brought to Fort Lafayette, where they are now kept in close confinement.

Delegates of four or five counties of North Carolina met in convention at Fort Hatteras, and organized a provisional government.—They declared their loyalty to the U. S. Government, repudiated secession, and ordered a special election of Members of Congress. They elected Nash Taylor Governor, and then adjourned subject to the call of the President of the Convention.

The Canada papers are very severe on our Government on account of the capture of Slidell and Mason. The Toronto Leader says the best government on earth would not allow such an insult to go unpunished.

The report is confirmed that 4000 of our troops had invaded the eastern shore of the Potomac, and were opposed by 1800 rebels.

Part of Hunter's army in Missouri has arrived at St. Louis; the other part is in Sedalia.

Gen. Halleck has arrived in St. Louis.

Port Royal and Beaufort will be declared open ports by the Government.

The Government is highly elated at the capture of Slidell and Mason.

Johnson has concentrated his army at Centreville, and very few troops are at Manassas.

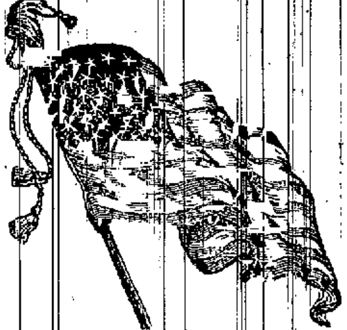
OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.



No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

MONDAY MORNING, DEC. 2, 1861.

☞ Some interesting articles will be found no the first and last pages of this paper.

THE NEWS.

We have some interesting news. Slidell and Mason, bound to Europe, as ministers of Jeff. Davis, have been taken prisoners and are now in Fort Lafayette. Gwin and his party are with them. They can now plot treason together as of yore. We have more particulars of the popular movement in North Carolina. The Union Convention embraced delegates from forty-five Counties. They passed an act declaring the secession ordinance a nullity; all the offices of the State vacant; appointed a Governor, and ordered elections for members of Congress. The eastern papers express hearty satisfaction at the capture of Slidell and Mason. Those Canada papers under the influence of Southern secession sympathizers, are disposed to make a fuss about it. Johnson had concentrated his army at Centerville.

We have undoubtedly despatches on the way from Yreka; but, their contents will probably be anticipated by the steamer which may arrive before our paper goes to press. It is time we should hear from the naval expedition which has gone into the Gulf of Mexico.

Jim Lane's Plain Talk.—Lane, with his troops, visited a town in Missouri, called "Pleasant Hill." He called the inhabitants together, and said to them: "You see that flag; it has been your protection, and shall be still. So long as it remains here, you are safe; but if it is cut down, I will return and burn your town." That flag was waving at the last accounts.

Telegraph from Yreka to Portland.—We have received a communication from the East, written by Mr. A. G. Schneider, who is desirous of getting up a company here and in California for the purpose of constructing a line of telegraph from the principal towns in Washington Territory, through Portland, to Yreka. Such a project is already, as we understand by the papers, in a fair way of being carried out by Mr. J. E. Strong. If that should from any cause fail, we will promptly apprise Mr. Schneider of the fact, and lay his plan before the public.

The Spanish fleet for Mexico was at Havana at the last dates. It is said to be the object of Spain to place a Prince at the head of the Mexican Government. Prince Monte is said to be a favorite for this purpose.

Cotton is no longer king. France and England have found that they can get along better without our cotton than without our wheat.

Flax cotton and its fabrics are certain to become an institution. The fibre can be obtained at seven cents a pound. Mixed with one quarter cotton, it makes a beautiful cloth for calicoes, and it can also be used advantageously with wool.

The Victoria Colonist says that the past month of November has been the most stormy ever known in that region; and the same fact is remarked "by the oldest inhabitant" of this region.

At the last dates from San Francisco, poor apples were selling at from $1 to $1 50 per box; good invoices at six and seven cents per pound.

The Amoor trade is promising well. The San Francisco Herald says that the Amoor country can supply us with twenty millions worth of tea and thirty millions worth of sheep, and a vast many other valuable articles.

The Government have now three traitor Senators in its power, and may soon have another.

(Dispatch from the Sacramento Union.)

New York, Nov. 21st.—The North Carolina Convention of Delegates, which met at Hatteras, represented forty-five counties. They passed an act, of which this is the substance:

1st. Declares vacant all the offices of the State.

2d. Names Marble, Nash, Taylor, Provisional Governor.

3d. Adopt the Constitution of the State with the statutes and laws contained in the Revised Code of 1855.

4th. Repudiates the Ordinance of Secession passed at Raleigh on the 20th of May, together with all other acts then adopted.

5th. Directs the Provisional Governor to order a special election for members of Congress.

6th. Gives the Governor authority to make temporary appointments to official vacancies.

The Convention then adjourned, subject to the call of the President.

Governor Taylor issued his proclamation for an election in the Second Congressional District on Wednesday, November 27th.

The Government will make Beaufort an open port.

Late accounts say there were 5,000 rebel troops in New Orleans, well armed but badly clothed.

Com. Wilkes was complimented by Gen. Wool, that in taking Slidell and Mason, he did right. The Toronto (Canada) Globe says it was a great insult to the British Government.

Gen. Hunter has repudiated the treaty with Price made by Fremont, in regard to conducting the war in Missouri.

There had been a plan in contemplation to send cotton across Texas to Tampico for European shipment. A U. S. frigate has been sent here to attend to that matter.

Three South Carolina regiments wanted to go home from the Potomac when they heard of the capture of Port Royal, but were not allowed to do so.

The notorious Ned McGowan was arrested in New Orleans on the 12th October, as a spy.

The Planters' Advocate, lately published at Marlborough, in Maryland, has been suspended, in consequence, it is said, of the following order from the Post Office Department forbidding its transmission through the mails:

Post Office Department, Oct. 15, 1861.

It appearing to the Department that the "Planters' Advocate," published at Marlborough, Maryland, is a treasonable sheet, advocating the overthrow of the Government, and giving aid and comfort to its enemies now in arms against it, it is ordered that the same be excluded from all mails and other postal facilities of the United States.

By order of the Postmaster General,
John Kasson,
Assistant Postmaster General.

It is not believed the Planters' Advocate ever published an article evincing more entire hostility to the Government than can be found in the Oregon secession papers. The Democrat publishes an original poem, glorifying the successes of the traitors at Manassas, and declaring that "Davis and Beauregard are the glory of the land." Would such a press issue another paper in the loyal States of the East?

Congress.—Congress commences its session to-day.

Chinateague Island lies off Accomac county, Virginia. It contains 1300 inhabitants. No other flag than the Stars and Stripes has been flying there yet.

Coal Oil—a new Theory.—A gentleman named Benton, who visited the oil springs in January, says:

"It is a common idea, even with geologists, that the oil has been produced from beds of coal, but this old field is sufficient of itself to show the incorrectness of the notion. The limestone found in this region, under the drift clay, I recognize as a member of the Hamilton groupe of the Devonian formation, and such is geologically many thousand feet below the lowest member of the carboniferous formation, below which workable coal beds are never found. The truth is, that this oil, found so abundantly in Canada, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and many other localities, is not coal oil, but coral oil. Stored away in cells, forming in the aggregate immense reefs, as it was collected from the impure waters of the early oceans by minute coral polyps, it has been driven by heat and pressure into reservoirs and crevices, where man's ingenuity is discovering it day by day. I have in my possession many specimens of this fossil coral, with oil plainly visible in the cells.

New Diggings Discovered on the north Fork of the Clearwater.

$150 per day.

By last night's boat we learn that a miner arrived at Lewiston from the North Fork of the Clearwater, above Oro Fino creek, with $600, which he stated he dug in four days, in a locality that has not heretofore been worked. He came down for supplies, intending to return and winter at the same spot.

Chas. Hutchins, Esq., Agent at the Nez Perces Reservation, arrived by last night's boat. The Indians had just received their annuities, and were satisfied. They had no objection to the whites working their mineral lands.

Letter from Washington.

Editor Oregonian:

Washington, Oct. 25th, 1861.

Who is to be Senator now that Col. Baker is no more? Is it to be a well known secessionist now in Oregon? Such a man is not wanted here. Washington has allowed enough traitors to sit in her Government councils and plot treason, and then join the traitor flag. No man can come here now and say "Peace," without being branded as a "Traitor." The doctrine is now that "He that is not for us is against us." This is true. Washington and Maryland have been full of traitors; and even now letters are sent to Richmond from here, apprizing the rebels of our intended army movements. We have enough secessionists here without sending more. If Oregon sends a Senator to occupy the place of Col. Baker, her own interests and welfare will require that she send one who is known to be true to the Union and Government. We fear that Governor Whiteaker will be under the contact of men who love treason, and that he will appoint a man of like mind of himself and friends. We have seen what traitor Governors have done in loyal States,—Virginia, North Carolina, Missouri and Kentucky.—Oregon has nothing to hope from secession. The very existence depends on her adherence to the Union. Gov. Whiteaker will now exhibit himself in his true colors.

An Oregonian.

Miners are every day leaving the Dalles for Salmon, Powder and John Day's river. They do not expect to work much until next spring, but to be prepared for work on the opening of spring.

The Victoria Colonist says that gold diggings have been found on the upper waters of McKenzies' river.

CITY.

CIRCUIT COURT.—In this Court, the greater portion of Saturday was occupied in the trial of the cause of Woo Ching vs. Young A Kin. The jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff. The audience present during the progress of the above case were evidently highly amused from the humorous eloquence of the attorneys and one of the Celestial witnesses. The cause set for to-day in this court is the State of Oregon vs. Mary Champaney and Robert Sutherland.

CUT LOOSE.—In another column it will be seen that Messrs. Abrams and Co., offers a large reward for the apprehension and conviction of the vagabond who went and cut a rope which secured a large number of their saw-logs. No doubt for the purpose of petty pilfering. Here is a chance for our officers to put their wits at work.

COUNTY COURT.—Hon. E. Hamilton, presiding, commences its session for the December term this morning.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.—The quarterly session of the board of County Commissioners commence their sesion to-day.

THE RIVER.—In consequence of the great amount of rain which has fallen within the past few days, the river is rapidly rising—the current running at the rate of five miles an hour—taking along with it any quantity of driftwood.

COURTS.—The U. S. District Court, Hon. M. P. Deady presiding, commences a term this morning. The most important suit we find on the docket is J. P. O. Lownsdale vs. City of Portland—In Equity, bill for injunction. This cause is to be heard on the evidence.

Up to the hour of 2 o'clock this morning the steamer Pacific had not arrived.

THE MAIL.—Yesterday was the day when the Stage Company by law were allowed to bring the mail through from Sacramento to this city in twelve days' time.

Quartermaster General Meigs has ordered the officers in his department not to employ persons tinctured with secession.

Twenty volunteers have been enrolled at Oregon City, and it is supposed that a full company will be raised in Clackamas county. Capt. Curry is succeeding well at the Dalles in raising volunteers.

Swett's Grape Bitters, or Restorative Wine, manufactured under the supervision of Mrs. A. M. SWETT, the celebrated Clarvoyant Physician, and prepared from roots and herbs of great medicinal virtue, combined with the pure juice of the California Grape—a certain remedy for Liver Complaint, Debility, Billiousness, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Impaired Appetite, Impure Breath, &c., and all diseases requiring a powerful Liver Invigorator and Tonic. Warranted the best remedy ever invented for diseases peculiar to females, such as Leucorrea, or Whites, Weaknesses, &c. Sold by all Druggists, and by DANIEL SWETT, Proprietor, 535 California street, San Francisco. aug26m

Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL, and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it, as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science, and they occupy, with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. Ricord is an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe, and Dr. Czapkay has fully equalled him in this country; as a proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma, and the honorary ad eundem degree. Selecting this as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for more extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert, that he is now regarded as the LEADER in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures, in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to lose time in corresponding, please enclose $10 in their letters, and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal. june26d&w1y

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self Abuse, [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them the existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases is so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

[illegible] and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business and correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the pangs of disease, who, having recovered their former health, and impelled by gratitude, make known their case and remedial agent, and their statements authenticated by a Notary Public. The demands of society imperatively command their publicity, and we commend their perusal to the attention of all afflicted.

CERTIFICATE.—The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly affected, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the [illegible] recovery of his health. Borne down by the [illegible] symptoms incident to the vicious practices of [illegible] passion in youth, depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the daily avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance—but, alas! after a few weeks, and in [illegible] [illegible] months of their treatment, I found, to my [illegible], that instead of relief, my symptoms became more alarming in their torture; and being told by one that my disease being principally confined to the brain, medicine would be of little consequence, I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength, and energy; and as a last resort, and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who after examining my case, prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and [illegible] in my head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to [illegible] immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice, my head became clear, and my ideas collected, the constant pain in my back and groins, the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the [illegible] and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study, and want of [illegible], the frightful, exciting, and at times pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared; and in fact, in two months after having consulted the doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life [illegible] but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience, that one under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

State of California, County of San Francisco:
Subscribed and sworn to before me, this seventh day of April, A. D. 1856. Signed,
[L. S.] JOHN MIDDLETON, Notary Public.

Marysville, June 22, 185[illegible].

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco—Sir: I have used the last of your medicine, and do not think I shall need any more, as I feel very well, except that I have not altogether got my strength yet, but soon will with the [illegible]. It is just three weeks, you may recollect, since I visited your institute, with my constitution, as I thought, [illegible] entirely, and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to [illegible] to ease the pain in my back and head, and [illegible] my nerves, so that I would not get excited and [illegible] at everything. Now that you know what I expected, you may judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from the symptoms, and the removal of those sores and [illegible] on my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and the [illegible] stoppage of those emissions, which you said were [illegible] the cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except not having [illegible] got my strength, I feel as well as any man can feel.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your [illegible], as I think myself cheaply cured. If you think any [illegible] will be benefited, you may put this letter in the newspapers. Believe me gratefully yours,
THOMAS HAYDEN.

Thankfulness is the Incentive to gratitude.

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire of my [illegible], I wish to lay before the public a case which [illegible] commendation, not only as an act of scientific skill, but [illegible] humanity also. About two years ago, I [illegible] from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of [illegible], which, owing to my inability to meet the [illegible] consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement which I met with on attempting it, soon became such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although insensible to the agonies, I yet [illegible] the miseries of my life, and soon learned to look upon those who would render assistance or shelter me from danger, as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my [illegible]. While in this state, and having, previous to my [illegible], tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to [illegible] seeking aid of a physician, and, by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my [illegible] and my inability to reward him for his services, [illegible] of which, however, he at once undertook my case, and [illegible] I was once more restored to perfect health. I had let to reward him for the boon which [illegible] [illegible] and yet conscious of my indebtedness, [illegible] due to myself and all afflicted, to make the case public, [illegible] that at these [illegible] of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
